CHINATOWN IS ON THE MOVE

Many Stores Are Coming Over to the Former Sites.

Chinatown is on the move. Already there have been many removals from the Ewa side of the Aala district to the new stores on this side of the Nuuanu Stream. Vacant rooms now dot the streets tributary to King, and there is still a demand for rooms in the new buildings on the site of the old Chinatown.

The exodus from the Liliha street district began some weeks ago, and has been augmented recently through the completion of a number of new stores about Smith street. When this district has been built up it is understood that there will be a further movement toward the old part of the city. The demand for the rooms is unabated, and it is understood that there will be a number of frame buildings erected in the neighborhood of the present nucleus for the new Chinatown at once.

The removals from the other side of the stream seem to be principally from the streets off King, though there are a few men who have abandoned stores on the main thoroughfare. This is not the usual custom, however, and there continues a demand for places on the main street. Several applications have come in to F. J. Cross, who is one of the members of a hui which has fifty-seven stores in that district. The men want small rooms, and say that they would rather be on King street, though on the other side of the stream, than in the old Chinatown and off the main streets.

The class of buildings which are being erected in the burnt district is little better than were the buildings destroyed, when they were new. There is more openness, however, and the plumbing is better.

OPPOSED TO THE AGITATION

Delegate Wilcox Believes There Will Be No Good Result.

Delegate R. W. Wilcox is opposed to the continuation of the agitation by the Independents against the Governor. He believes that there is no good which may come from it, and that there will be nothing done at once in the case, so that a following of this course will be effective only in that it may bring about a feeling at Washington which will hurt the chance of the Islands to secure what is needed during this winter.

Mr. Wilcox said yesterday that there could be no good result from the consideration of the name of David Kawananakoa for governor, as he was too well known as a Democrat, and as there is a Republican administration at Washington, there could be no other than a Republican appointed to the governorship, should Governor Dole resign.

Other leaders of the Home Rulers are of the opinion that it would be unwise to go on with their attacks upon the Governor, and it is probable that the meeting of this week will be as mild as it once promised to be wild.

GERARDY IN THE COLONIES.

The Great Cellist Makes a Popular Hit in New Zealand.

Stimulated by the brilliant success achieved on the previous evening, a large audience again assembled in the Choral Hall last night to listen to Jean Gerardy, the great young Belgian 'cellist. This second recital proved no whit less successful, artistically, than its predecessor. Playing throughout with the genius of one inspired, the youthful musician conveyed with emphasis to those who listened each varied phase of the music he interpreted. Gerardy's first number was Rubenstein's "Sonata in D, op. 18." Opening with an allegro moderato movement, this work continues through varied phases until the final moderato passages, and in each the player showed a convincing mastery of his art. He next gave a sonata by Boccherini, in which he alternated daintiness with strength of touch, the whole effect being remarkably fine. The encore which followed was most emphatic. In the dramatic cantabile number, "Le Cygne" (St. Saens), he played with exquisite tenderness the melody being brought out with smoothness and in perfect taste. Herberts' "Serenade" was equally well played, while Popper's "Papillon" received a brilliant delivery. In a "Nocturne" of Chopin's and "Rhapsodie Hongroise" (Popper) the distinguished artist gave fresh evidence of his great talent. Throughout his entire performance Jean Gerardy was completely in accord with his audience, and his reception was most flattering, recalls and encores being the natural sequence to each example of his skill. Mr. Laurence Phillip accompanied in admirable taste, and in addition, rendered the piano solos, "Novelette" (Schumann), "Frühlingsrauschen" (Sinding), and "Les deux Alouettes" (Leschetzky), with a marked degree of skill, which earned him unstinted applause. It will be noted by concert goers that in response to numerous requests M. Gerardy will give a matinee performance this afternoon, commencing at 2:30 o'clock. The farewell recital takes place tonight, when the young 'cellist's numbers will include Mendelssohn's "Sonata No. 2, D major," and a variety of the works of other masters.—New Zealand Herald.

For Assault on High Seas.

John Lund, first mate on the Foong Suey, an American bark, which arrived in port yesterday from New York, was arrested by the Deputy United States Marshal on a charge of assault upon the high seas, preferred by two of the sailors. In all there are four informations filed against the man, two by Tual Genierex for assaults committed July 26 and July 28, and two preferred by Thomas Burke for assaults alleged to have been made July 28 and August 12. The hearing is set for 4 o'clock this afternoon before the Commissioner in the Federal court room.

Maurice Beckwith, brother of Mrs. Cordelia Damon, returned to the Coast yesterday on the China, after a pleasant sojourn in the Islands.
